

College Board of Education Series—1000

ENDORSEMENTS

The Chemeketa Community College Board of Education, as a nonpartisan, policy-making body, shall not endorse any candidate(s) seeking local, state, or national elected office. The College Board of Education shall not endorse any local, state, or national issue, unless the issue directly relates to college operations or would otherwise impact the college.

As individuals, College Board of Education members may make endorsements, but must make it clear they are not acting on behalf of the College Board of Education.
